

Two Have Narrow Escape from Gas

Mrs. Joseph Turney, 2903 North Twenty-fourth street, an invalid, narrowly escaped death yesterday by asphyxiation, and Mrs. W. H. Pitt and daughter of Marysville, Kas., guests at the Turney home, were overcome. Mr. Turney, who is clerk at the Drexel hotel, at 8 a. m. discovered an open gas jet in the front hall. He summoned the police surgeons who responded with a pump which was applied to Mrs. Turney, whose condition was serious. The jet is said to have been left lighted and the flame extinguished by the wind. The three victims are out of danger. BIG PLATE GLASS WINDOW BROKEN BY GIANT CRACKER

Some enthusiastic Fourth of July celebrator some time Sunday night exploded a giant torpedo against the large plate glass window on the west side of the Missouri Pacific city ticket office. The glass was shattered into fragments, entailing a loss of $50. Just as the glass was broken, two young men were seen to run south from Fifteenth and Farnam streets, but their identity could not be discovered.

Will Look for His Name on Liberty Bell

Forty years ago Monday Harry Asher of 318 North Twenty-seventh street wrote his name inside of the Liberty bell. At that time this Omaha was a resident of Philadelphia. He intends to visit the bell when it arrives here on Friday and will take a peek to see if his name has endured the ravages of time. Apartments, flats, houses and cottages can be rented quickly and cheaply by a Bee "For Rent."

SOUTH CAROLINIANS TO STOP IN OMAHA GOING WEST

Forty South Carolinians are to come through Omaha and make a stop of a half day or more enroute to the San Francisco exposition. The exact date of their coming is not yet known, but will be some time in August, likely.

This great economy event is, as our customers know, an annual merchandising necessity. It involves the reduction of the stocks now in the store to a definite minimum figure on July 31st and of course REDUCED PRICES ARE NECESSARILY THE MEANS TO ACCOMPLISH THIS END. This is our announcement and invitation to the great half-yearly economy event, wherein lower and lower prices give a speedy departure to everything advertised.

Incomparable Economies Ready for

BRANDEIS STORES

None of our past great sales have begun to rival this one in highly desirable merchandise in such variety and such values. We are sure it is not boastful to say our ability as collectors and distributors of merchandise proves beyond refutation our right to the premier position we occupy as Omaha's representative store. The backward season has left more fine materials than usual in the store and these values are consequently wonderful.
